My studio offers something for every age of student and ability. Won't you join me on this journey of experiencing the joy of music making? I am looking forward to some great music making in 2019-2020!

The studio calendar will have a lesson schedule and dates for recitals, festival, contest, and more. I will observe all major holidays such as Thanksgiving and Christmas as scheduled breaks.

Carefully fill out this registration form noting that it is two pages in length. Listed are times that I am available for lessons. Please mark the times that would work for your family. Complete schedules will be sent to you once lesson times are set up.

If you will not be continuing lessons in my studio, please contact me so I can open that spot to someone on the waiting list.

Parents: At the first scheduled lesson, I want to meet with at least one parent/guardian and the student and we will look at the upcoming year and set goals of things to participate in, practice goals, and things the student and/or parent/guardian want the student to learn. Every year I continue to be amazed by the quick progress of students in their learning after participating in MMTA Piano Exams or Music Bridges. These programs challenge the student to go beyond the day to day learning and stretch their abilities. When we come back to lesson books the pieces often seem so much easier. The MMTA Events-Ensemble Festival, Piano Exams, Theory Exams, State Piano Contest, and Music Bridges programs give us goals to reach for our highest potential!
